Our Family In Christ

A Christian community for all generations

March 2019

A MONTHLY PUBLICATION OF LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE CROSS

Dear friends in Christ,

"May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer." Psalm 19:14

Do these words sound familiar? We say them before we give the message at worship. In this day of mass communication, we not only need to think about the words of our mouths, but the words we communicate in other ways through e-mail, text messages, voice mail, twitter, yelp, etc.

We also need to practice the "Matthew 18 Principle" of going to the person we have an issue with first before talking to others. We need to remember how our children hear the words that come out of our mouths and how impressionable they are at their age.

Let's think about all the ways we can use our words. We can use our words to be cute and clever. We can use our words to appear impressive. We can use our words to argue. We can use our words to defend ourselves. We can use our words to lie and distort. We can use our words to do many things, but God wants us to use our words to bless.

So when we speak, if our words do not bless and benefit those to whom we direct them, then we are to simply not say anything. When we were growing up, we might have said that little rhyme that goes... "Sticks and stones may break my bones but words can never hurt me." In reality, our bones can heal, but our memories often can't let go of hurtful words. Maybe that rhyme wasn't as profound as Grandma's wise words, "If you can't say something nice, then don't say anything at all."

Paul hit it on the head when he said, "Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen". Ephesians 4:29

Within the body of Christ, we need to work on being careful with our words. It would be good for us to be reminded of how important our words can be. Let us think about using our words to build up and encourage others. Let us use our words to glorify Christ.

In the world around us, let us use our words to tell others about how Christ is working in our lives. Let us use our words to invite others to know Jesus and to grow in our love for Him and for others. Let us use our words to pray for others in need. As we do all these things, we will be glorifying God.

In Christ,
Pastor Leland

Missions Update: Daniel & Sharon Okabe, Faith Radio Uganda

Many of us have met Daniel who has visited LCC a number of times; most recently within the last year. Daniel married Sharon about 18 months ago and both are invested in this ministry.

Radio is the primary source of news for the typical Ugandan and this is the vehicle by which the gospel goes out. The radio audience is a young one as the average age in Uganda is 15.5 and the life expectancy is only 53. This is due to the impact of HIV/AIDS and many orphaned children.

Faith Radio is heard in 16 districts of Eastern Uganda and portions of Kenya and covers over 10-12 million people. The Okabes work to promote and build listenership by organizing youth conferences, partnering with other radio stations in other parts of the country, as well as direct work with homeless children and the orphanage that is part of Faith Radio's parent organization, Impact Ministries. Their prayer requests are to expand the reach of Faith Radio, safety of the Faith Radio staff, and funding for staff salaries, rent & equipment repairs and replacement. Please join in their work with your faithful and fervent prayers.

News from Our Father's Table (OFT)

Our Father's Table is turning 5! Yes OFT is having its 5th birthday and we couldn't have done it without you! The Lord keeps blessing us and our brothers and sisters who are living on the streets of our neighborhood. We have lifted over 170 homeless off the streets and we are so blessed to celebrate their restoration with you! Thank you for your prayers and continued support!

OFT's founder, Gina Seriel, was honored to be part of Loyola Marymount University's Living on the Edge Homeless Symposium last month. She was a guest speaker on "How Do We Give Back Our Homeless Brothers and Sisters Their Dignity?" panel. We were honored she and OFT were recognized for the honorable work we are doing with the forgotten in our streets.
